Fighting the flu starts at work.

You’ve heard all the excuses...

“I didn’t have time.” “Can’t afford it.” “I forgot.” Break through these barriers to care by offering flu shots at your workplace.

Health Advocate’s Flu Shot Program, part of our Onsite Solutions offerings, empowers your employees to take control of their health and reduce their risk of disease—which helps you have a healthier, more productive workforce. Serving organizations of any size, nationwide, we will come to your worksite to administer flu shots. This convenient approach helps you easily reach members and patients on their turf and on their schedule.
Easy and convenient.
For them—and for you.

Health Advocate's onsite Flu Shot Program helps employees keep themselves—and their coworkers—healthier during flu season. That can lead to better attendance and increased productivity—and fewer sneezes and sniffles.
